Tim,

Per Pam's suggestion, since the Ohio Pain Initiative is a chapter of the American Alliance Cancer Pain Initiatives, I've now updated the PPFund chart below to reflect this contribution.

Financial support from PURDUE PHARMA FUND:

		2001	2002	2003
National Medical Association	0	$50,000	0
American Pain Foundation	$525,000*	0	0
National Foundation for Treatment of Pain	0	$12,500	0
Ohio Pain Initiative
American Alliance of Cancer Pain Initiatives	$100,000	0	$105,000 (Matching contribution)

Jeannette

*Spread over two-year period: 2001 and 2002

I think we funded NFTP with funds in 2001...and though we did not directly fund the Ohio CPI...we did fund their national organization in 2001,2 and 3

For all organizations? Don't we also provide grant money which Jeannette would not know about?

All:

I need to know the $$'s for these organizations in anticipation of questions in Cincinnati at the Howland hearing. Can you provide/direct me to a person who can provide. This is really important, so I look forward to any guidance you can provide.

Tim
